CHRIST, KING OF ALL

On this, the final Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King. By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only king over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation.

At the end of time as we know it, Christ’s work of restoring all things to unity and harmony with their Creator God will be completed. This Sunday, when we claim Christ as both our Shepherd and our King, we recognize our own calling to participate in Christ’s saving work by caring for those whom Jesus calls “the least ones” (Matthew 25:45).

Every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we remind ourselves that all we have and all we are comes from God.

Eucharist = Thanksgiving

From the desk of

Father Jamie

We celebrate Thanksgiving as a holiday once a year as a country. In the Catholic world, we celebrate Thanksgiving every day and especially on Sundays. Eucharist, which means thanksgiving, is one of our greatest actions we do as Christians. Our whole Christian lives flow from and are founded on Eucharist, which is the source and summit of our faith.

A lot of people only pray when things are difficult, but we must not forget to pray prayers of thanksgiving as well. We have a lot to be thankful for. God has brought us a long way and continues to do so. I think a huge problem in this day and age is an attitude of entitlement, instead of thanksgiving. If only we could be more thankful as a society, then maybe we would not want so much stuff.

We are soon approaching Advent, which is not just remembering the birth of Christ, but is also helping us to prepare for the second coming. Probably the more thankful we are, the more prepared we will be for the second coming of Christ. To be thankful is to also be humble.

May we continue to thank God for all that we have and are. May we thank him for what he has given us and what he wants to give us in the future. May we also be thankful for the people God has put into our lives when we have needed them. We are in the right place at the right time. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love and mercy endures forever.

To everyone who volunteered to help bring food or serve at our annual Thanksgiving dinner. Through this dinner we create moments of encounter and friendship. It takes a lot of people to be able to serve this dinner.

How can we identify a real king or a queen? Is it the fine clothes and jewel encrusted crowns they wear or their regal demeanor and stately appearance? Do they sit on thrones raised above all the other people and give orders that make others fearfully rush to fulfill their every command? No!!!! Hollywood may portray them as such and that may be how some kings and queens actually lived. But a real king or queen is one who cares equally about everyone for whom they are responsible.

David was a real king. Despite his well documented faults and sins, he sought to assure that all of the Kingdom of Judah shared equally in the resources and protection of the kingdom. He understood that whatever he did for the least in God's kingdom, he did for God. That is why the Northern Kingdom of Israel prevailed upon David to be their king.

Jesus is a Davidic King so today we honor him as Christ the King. Jesus challenges us to be Davidic kings and queens who understand that whatever we do for the least in God's kingdom, we do for God.

Let gratitude for the past inspire us with trust for the future.

Treasures from our Tradition

Today we have a modern feast, less than a century old, and placed at the very end of the liturgical cycle of Sundays only in 1969. In 1925, the world was in a sorry state from the vantage point of Pope Pius XI. The winds of war had swept the map of Europe raw, and ancient Christian dynasties had fallen in Russia and Spain. Although the Great War had ended, wars were breaking out everywhere. Fascism was already in control in Italy, and Nazism was on the horizon for Germany. The disorder making its claim on the human race was, the pope felt, an insult to the Divine Order. Pius XI designated the last Sunday in October as a day of universal recognition of the kingship of Christ. Creating this feast was an act of bravery by the pope, who was standing up against idolatry of the state and the dehumanizing forces of the modern world, things that are not hard to detect in today's world as well. In 1969 it seemed fitting to move the feast to a place of honor at the end of the year, a way of summing up the whole movement of the liturgical year toward the perfection of the Kingdom of God. In recent decades, many Protestant churches have adopted this day from the new Roman calendar, so it is shared now with the Church of England, the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Lutheran churches, and others.
