From the desk of Father Sinoj , HGN

Dear Friends in Christ,

Greetings! Hope all of you are enjoying the summer! I would like to thank all of you for your prayers and good wishes on my Birthday. July 4 is near. Wish you all a Happy Independence Day! Let us continue to thank the Lord our God for the gift of freedom as a nation and as individual citizens. May our pride as Americans help us to grow in our goodness and kindness to our brothers and sisters in the society!

The Gospel this weekend has two parts. In the first part we find Jesus' teaching on Christian tolerance. James and John were angry at Samaritans who had refused to receive Jesus and allow him to travel through their village to Jerusalem. But Jesus rebukes them. In the second part we find Jesus demanding "commitment" from the three potential disciples who offered lame reasons that made Jesus' call to ministry "impossible" for them to accept.

As we are celebrating the Independence Day this week, let us take these messages of Jesus for our reflection: tolerance and commitment. I think they are two major concerns of the time. As citizens of a free nation in this modern world, don't we feel that Jesus is talking to us through this Gospel? Our tolerance to our brothers and sisters and our commitment to humanity and our nation are to be considered very important values that we should constantly try to live. Let us celebrate our freedom through our tolerance and commitment..

God loves you!!!!

(^^^..^^) Always

In today’s Gospel, Jesus says, “Follow me.” We know that as disciples, we are sure to be challenged along our journey of loving and serving Him and each other. We can keep our eyes looking ahead and navigate the obstacles by taking advantage of the assistance God provides through prayer, scripture, and the sacraments.

.VIRTUE

It is certainly true that a popular government cannot flourish without virtue in the people.

RADICAL TRANSFORMATION

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings describe anything but an ordinary time. They are disturbing and they leave us disturbed. The Old Testament reading recounts a young man’s radical break with the past to follow a new path. The Gospel describes how life as we know it is abruptly changed if we follow the call of Christ. The psalm and Paul assure us that such life-altering change is possible only because of the power of God’s love. We are presented with a stark choice. To love as God loves, we must leave our old lives behind. We must leave behind not just the bad, the selfish, and the evil but the ordinary, our daily work, and the important, our families, our lives. Loving as God loves requires a radical transformation, not a smooth transition.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Processions are life's journey distilled. We move with companions, aware that Christ accompa-nies us, as we move to the altar for Communion or to the font for baptism, or carry a loved one to a place of rest. In Europe, the season of pilgrimage is beginning now, and tens of thousands of people are moving by foot on well-worn paths. Some take as long as six weeks to walk the last few hundred miles of the medieval pilgrimage route to the Shrine of St. James the Apostle in Compostella, in northern Spain.

Those who make the journey by foot, hiking, or by bicycle, have a kind of passport stamped at villages and monasteries on the road. When they present this document at the ca-thedral, they are given the emblem of a pilgrim, the scallop shell of St. James. High over their heads at Mass, a huge botafumero twirls clouds of sweet incense through the cathedral. Cynics say it is to mask the odor of smelly feet. The pilgrims know better. Seeing through the clouds the happy faces of those they met along the road, they recognize a foretaste of the welcome into heaven, and the joy of meeting loved ones in the Kingdom of God.

Church Mice

BILLBOARDS FOR LIFE: As most of you are aware, Opportunities for Life (OFL) is no longer available to support the pregnancy help hotline in KY, which means we in Daviess County must replace two ministry areas provided by (OFL) - someone trained in crisis pregnancy circumstances who is seeking to promote life through counseling/ education and also is equipped with ultrasound for viewing their unborn child. For over 14 years OFL has referred crisis pregnancies to Care Net Owensboro (www.careneto.com). We are delighted to inform you that Care Net Owensboro will provide both these ministry areas. We will be replacing our 800 number with Care Net's local number (270-685-1300) on all our billboards as quickly as possible. With your prayers and sacrificial giving we currently maintain over 40 billboard faces in the Daviess County area. Thank you for all your support - it is greatly appreciated!
